5. Estimates and Change Orders

Provider may provide written estimates for project work, major upgrades, server replacement, network redesign, cloud migration, cabling, or other services outside the included scope. A written change order signed or approved by email by both Parties is required before Provider begins such work.

6. Backup and Data Responsibility

Client remains responsible for maintaining complete, current, and restorable backups of all business data. Provider may review backup status as part of monthly maintenance, but Provider is not responsible for data loss unless a separate backup monitoring agreement is signed by both Parties.

7. Security Disclaimer

Provider will apply commercially reasonable skill and care. Client understands that no computer network, security tool, antivirus software, backup system, firewall, or procedure can be guaranteed to prevent all downtime, malware, unauthorized access, data loss, or security incidents.

8. Client Responsibilities

- Provide timely access to systems, premises, passwords, vendor accounts, and authorized contacts.
- Maintain legal software licenses and active subscriptions.
- Promptly report significant technical issues, suspected malware, or data loss.
- Do not allow unauthorized third parties to alter covered systems without notifying Provider.
- Approve and fund necessary parts, licenses, security improvements, and vendor costs.

9. Warranty of Services

Provider warrants that services will be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner. Provider makes no other warranty, express or implied, including any warranty of uninterrupted operation, complete security, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose.

10. Limitation of Liability

Provider shall not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, punitive, consequential, or economic damages, including loss of revenue, loss of profit, business interruption, loss of data, or downtime. Provider total liability shall not exceed the fees paid by Client during the three months before the event giving rise to the claim.

11. Termination

Either Party may terminate this Agreement without cause by giving thirty days written notice. Either Party may terminate for material breach if the breach is not cured within fourteen business days after written notice. Client shall pay for services performed and approved expenses incurred through the termination date.

12. Confidentiality

Each Party shall protect the other Party confidential information using reasonable care and shall use such information only as necessary to perform or receive services under this Agreement.
